

Title: 16th Capacity Development CourseParticipants: 35Duration: 120 hoursCourse coordinator: Dr. Fareed HannaCommittee:

Dr. Kamaran Younis Muhamadamim

Dr. Abubakir Majeed Saleh

Dr. Zahraa Abdulqader

Dr. Laila Abdulsatar

Dr. Suzan Muhsin

Description of the course:

The course consists of three main parts according to the regulation of the Ministry of Higher Education:

1. Principles of teaching & learning in Higher Education including application of IT skills for teaching.
2. Principles of research methodology.
3. Laws and regulations of the Ministry of Higher Education.

The course consists of 120 Hours. Four hours daily for six weeks.

Learning outcome of the course:

1. To introduce principles of teaching in higher education.
2. To understand principles of different laws and regulations of KRG Higher Education.
3. To apply IT skills for teaching in Higher Education.
4. To make use of health & safety guideline in Higher Education.
5. To identify psychological aspects of teaching process in Higher Education.
6. To develop presentation skills for the participants.
7. To introduce principles of research methodology and other aspects related to research.
8. To improve grant writing and application.
9. To identify different elements of quality assurance process in Higher Education.
10. To understand principles of Bologna process (Qualification framework, diploma supplement, ECTS system).

Syllabus of the course:

Assessment methods:

Multiple assessment will be used to assess the participants of the course:

1. Assignment about research methodology (20 marks).
2. IT skills for teaching (10 marks).
3. Daily activity (10 marks).
4. Oral presentation at the end of the course (60 marks).